Hockey Canada Maltreatment Initiative

Hockey Canada has produced a video that clearly outlines the definition of Maltreatment and Playing Rule 11 as it addresses items such as

- Unsportsmanlike Conduct

- Disrespectful and Abusive Behavior

- Spitting

- Discrimination

We strongly recommend distributing the following link to the Maltreatment video to all parents and players within your Association to view.

Officiating Program

“Thanks Stripes” Weekend

Hockey Sask is partnering with Teams, Leagues and Associations to show appreciation for officials during the January 13-15 weekend.

- Events include meet-in-greets with high-level officials and discounted tickets to WHL games, award presentations and acknowledgments, PA announcements, complimentary food and drinks from the canteen, and social media exposure.
- We ask that you join us by using the hashtag #ThanksStripes on social media posts to show the zebras your appreciation for them during the weekend. We will select three (3) winners who post a picture of officials with that hashtag to win some Hockey Saskatchewan merchandise.
- We also ask that you please share what your team, league or association is doing for Thanks Stripes Weekend so we can share it on the website. People can send their details to Hockey Saskatchewan’s Officiating Development Manager Trent Cey (TrentC@HockeySask.ca).
- More information here: <https://hockeysask.ca/officials/thanks-stripes>
